Examiner and Respondent Motions

Presiding Master: Hon. Daniel P. Ryan

The parties having brought four (4) motions before the Master on May 27, 2016: 1) Examiner's Motion to Strike Deposition Testimony of Susan Lichterman; 2) Examiner's Motion to Strike Witnesses; 3) Respondent's Motion to Disqualify Examiner and JTC staff; and 4) Respondent's Motion in Limine to Preclude Exhibits and Testimony regarding Events after the June 24, 2015 Hearing. The Master having read all four (4) motions and briefs in support; answers and briefs in response to those motions; one reply to an answer; and e-mail correspondence correcting a case citation in the reply brief and additionally having heard oral arguments on May 27, 2016 on each one of the four motions; and for those additional reasons set forth on the record, the Master:

1. Denies Examiner's Motion to Strike the May 16, 2016 Deposition of Susan Lichterman and preserves said deposition testimony as an offer of proof of Ms. Lichterman's testimony;
2. Grants Examiner's Motion to Strike Witnesses;
3. Denies Respondent's Motion to Disqualify Examiner and JTC staff and subsequent oral request to refer this matter to the Commission; and
4. Denies Respondent's Motion in Limine to Preclude Exhibits and Testimony regarding Events after the June 24, 2015 Hearing.

IT IS SO ORDERED,

Hon. Daniel P. Ryan
Master

DATED: May 27, 2016

1 contact with the Israeli General Consul. I want you to 2 send reports to the Israeli General Consul.

3 And when that's refused by the GAL, at a
4 family party with Susan Lichterman, doing the same thing
5 with the attorney for the defendant.

6 THE MASTER: Chris, let me ask you this
7 question. And many times in my previous life before 8 retirement, if I had citizens from another country which 9 were involved in litigation before my court, it was Not 10 uncommon for the consulate -- and it doesn't, you know,
11 it doesn't necessarily matter if it was the Israeli 12 Consulate or not. It's not uncommon for the consulate 13 to approach either the prosecution, the defendant, or 14 even the Court to check on the wellbeing of citizens,
15 potential citizens. Aren't these children and aren't 16 the parents also Israeli citizens?

17 MR. HILDEBRANDT: The parents are certainly 18 Israeli citizens. The children were born here. Israel,
19 I'm sure, considers them Israeli citizens.

20 THE MASTER: Right. And would it be 21 inappropriate for the consulate to reach out to check on 22 the wellbeing or welfare of potential -- the parties
23 themselves obviously are Israeli citizens, but 24 potentially also the children are Israeli citizens, 25 having been born to two Israeli parents. Is it -- it's
